THE EFFECTIVE USE OF RESOURCES

- The Library in coordination with Elsevier organized a training workshop for faculty on the use of Scopus.
- Scopus is a comprehensive abstract and citation database of scholarly articles, books and conference proceedings.
- Users can initiate global research in science, technology, medicine, social sciences, arts and humanities.
- Mr. Wael Mansour, Customer Consultant from Elsevier, focused on the modules available in Scopus.
- He highlighted methods of extracting data relative to research performance for both individual researchers and an institution as a whole.
- Incremental ways to further develop collaborative opportunities both regionally and internationally, as well as boost citations per publication, field-weighted citation impact, and h-index were also discussed.
